China key in shaping AI rules: Altman

BLOOMBERG
June 10

CHINA SHOULD PLAY a key role in shaping the artificial intelligence guardrails needed to ensure the safety of transformative new systems, OpenAI chief executive officer Sam Altman said.

"With the emergence of the increasingly powerful AI systems, the stakes for global cooperation have never been higher," Altman, whose company kick-started an AI frenzy in China with last year's launch of ChatGPT, told a Beijing conference via video link. In both China and Silicon Valley, talent and investments are flowing into AI, a strategic area that will help define the deepening tech rivalry between the world's two largest economies.

Ministry of Science and Technology and Beijing's local government, has been name-checked by Microsoft president Brad Smith as one of the three frontrunners on AI innovation.

OpenAI's ChatGPT is not currently available in China, where longstanding data and censorship regulations have long shut out services from Western tech giants like Alphabet's Google and Meta Platforms' Facebook.

Experts have said complex data and algorithm laws will similarly make it difficult for Western companies to make inroads in AI in the country. China's tech overseer signaled in draft regulation guidelines that the onus for algorithm and content demands in the country may fall largely on platform operators.

The State Council said in June it is planning to discuss AI-related legislation later this year.

Altman said Saturday that OpenAI planned to open-source more of its models in the future, as part of its efforts to drive AI safety, without specifying a time frame or particular model. The tech entrepreneur's Beijing speech was part of the Asia leg of his global goodwill tour to promote AI governance.

While in London at the end of May, Altman clashed with European Union regulators after saying OpenAI could pull out of the region if proposed AI laws were enacted that would hold companies accountable for how their systems are used.

Advances in the emerging technology have also highlighted tensions in how governments are seeking to regulate the sector, one that China's President Xi Jinping has said requires greater state oversight to mitigate national security risks.

"China has some of the best AI talent in the world and fundamentally, given the difficulties in solving alignment for advanced AI systems, this requires the best minds from around the world," Altman told participants at the event hosted by the Beijing Academy of Artificial Intelligence.

Altman's speech to the Beijing conference itself was notable as the academy has strongly positioned itself in the AI sector in China.

Pak economy no longer vulnerable: FM

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Islamabad, June 10

PAKISTAN'S FINANCE MINISTER Ishaq Dar declared that the country was out of its economic vulnerability phase and that the government would make payments to multilateral lenders on time while seeking bilateral debt restructuring.

Addressing a post-Budget press conference in Islamabad, a day after unveiling the ₹14.46-trillion Budget for fiscal year 2023-24 beginning July 1, Dar said there were no plans to approach multilateral or development institutions to request debt rescheduling. "As far as the Paris Club rescheduling goes, we have no such plans on our menu. We will not go for rescheduling multilateral debt. We will make the payments on time and when they become due. I don't think it is dignified to go and tell them that we cannot pay," he said. Dar said negotiations could be pursued with bilateral lenders for extending the repayment period, which existed as an option and could be explored after the Budget process. "Backloading the principal and focussing on debt servicing could be considered for bilateral debt rescheduling," he said. Dar also clarified that there was no issue with domestic debt and that the government would not go for its rescheduling.

The minister admitted that the country faced deep and steep economic vulnerability but added that the government has successfully overcome it and prevented further economic decline. Adding that the country would be back on the road to progress, Dar said the first objective would be to reach the 2017 economic indicators, when Pakistan became the 24th-largest economy in the world.

The minister also defended the declared GDP target of 3.5% growth and said it would be achieved and added that the focus was on agriculture, IT and small and medium-sized industries.

Last reactor shut down at Ukraine nuclear plant

MILITARY REPORTED intense fighting with Russian forces on Saturday while the country's nuclear energy agency said it put the last operating reactor at Europe's largest nuclear power plant into a "cold shutdown" for safety as Russia's war on Ukraine drags on through its 16th month.

After Russian forces pummeled Ukraine with missiles and drones overnight resulting in deaths and damage to a military airfield, Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau arrived in Kyiv on Saturday for a previously unannounced visit, his second trip to Ukraine since Russia's invasion in February last year. He was accompanied by Deputy Prime Minister Chrystia Freeland.

Ukraine's general staff said Saturday that "heavy battles" were ongoing, with 34 clashes over the previous day in the country's industrial east.

Lanka lifts import cap on 286 items

Restrictions on 928 items will continue, including vehicle imports, which were banned in March 2020"

FINANCE MINISTRY

REUTERS
Colombo, June 10

SRI LANKA LIFTED import restrictions on 286 items, the country's finance ministry said on Saturday, a fresh sign that the South Asian nation is starting to emerge from its worst economic crisis in decades. The island of India's southern coast plunged into crisis last year as its foreign exchange reserves ran out. The government limited imports of more than 3,200 items, including seafood, electronics, and even musical instruments.

Its fortunes have improved over the past nine months as Sri Lanka secured a $2.9-billion bailout from the International Monetary Fund (IMF), moderated its once-soaring inflation and embarked on rebuilding its foreign exchange reserves. Sri Lanka's reserves grew 26% to a 17-month high of $3.5 billion in May, helped by stronger remittances and tourism earnings. The currency has risen about 24% this year, central bank data showed.

"With the economy stabilising, import restrictions on 286 items have been lifted from Friday midnight," the finance ministry said in a statement.

Restrictions on 928 items will continue, including vehicle imports, which were banned in March 2020, the statement said. A wide range of items, from railway carriages to radio broadcasting receivers, are included in the latest list released from restrictions.
